End-of-Sale Announcement for US and LATAM Extreme Networks' Distributors and Partners

ExtremeCloud™ IQ Multi-Year Pilot and TAC & OS Subscriptions (aka XCIQ) for the US K-12 Market

Extreme Networks announces the end-of-sale of multi-year legacy ExtremeCloud IQ Pilot and TAC & OS subscriptions (aka XCIQ) for US K-12 and public libraries. This announcement only affects pre-defined multi-year SKUs.

The XCIQ multi-year offering is replaced by the USK12 Extreme Platform ONE offering introduced in October 2025. Partners can convert E-rate opportunities previously approved by USAC to the equivalent USK12 Extreme Platform ONE subscriptions using the Global Service Substitution (GSS) process.

Extreme Platform ONE is an enterprise connectivity platform that integrates networking and security with AI into one powerful and simplified experience. The E-Rate program gives public K-12 schools and libraries in the U.S. funding to deploy networking solutions that help improve operations and deliver better experiences for students and faculty. As technology becomes more integral to classrooms and educational settings, small IT teams in public schools and libraries need an efficient way to provide reliable, secure network access without compromising performance. E-Rate eligible solutions from Extreme empower educators to provide a modern learning experience while seamlessly planning for future upgrades—without the need for additional staff.

Multi-year XCIQ K12 subscriptions will be Close Quote on November 1st, 2026. Any quotes issued prior to October 31, 2026, with XCIQ multi-year subscriptions will be honored until the quote expiration date but no further than December 30, 2026. Any new quotes or revisions to older quotes should be converted to the equivalent USK12 Extreme Platform ONE subscriptions.

Pursuant to the terms of your agreement with Extreme Networks®, this letter serves as your formal written End-of-Sales announcement.
