Increase Patient Safety with Optimized Communications for Real-Time Decision Making

Extreme Networks and Vocera Communications

Healthcare organizations must have effective collaboration across the entire care team. To ensure streamlined communications, it is important that staff can choose the device that best fits their needs.

Vocera offers a wide range of mobile devices that enable care providers to choose the device that best suits each role, including iPhone and Android smartphones, Vocera Smartbadge and Badge, tablets for rounding, and laptop/desktop workstations.

To optimize care team communication, Extreme Networks has integrated ExtremeWireless with Vocera to deliver seamless mobility solutions in any environment.
