

Removal of power cords from Extreme SD-WAN appliances

Summary

Effective immediately, Extreme Networks will no longer include power cords with Extreme SD-WAN appliances. Power cords should be ordered separately.

The list of affected part numbers is shown below along with the number of power cords required for each product.

Certain XSW-xx SDWAN part numbers will require that the power cord be quoted on separate quotes due to system restrictions. The affected part numbers are also indicated below.

Also shown is the list of available power cords for Extreme SD-WAN appliances. Part numbers with COS-01-xx include one power cord, while part numbers with COS-02-xx include two power cords.
